

TRAPRAIN GARDEN CIRCLE MAY - JUNE 2016

Three distinctly different gardens, two of which have never previously opened, in rural East Lothian:

- 1 Garvald Grange, a bijou walled garden set in substantial policies
- 2 Granary House, an exposed densely-planted garden
- 3 Stevenson Steading, a traditional walled garden

Follow the unfolding of late spring and early summer in each garden on three afternoons over a month.

OPENING TIMES

Wednesday 25 May
Wednesday 15 June
Wednesday 29 June
11:00am - 6:00pm

ADMISSION

Season ticket £15.00, all gardens, all days
Single visit ticket £5.00 per garden per day
Tickets will be available on the day at all of the gardens.

BENEFICIARY CHARITIES

60% net of the proceeds from the Traprain Garden Circle is shared between Scotland's Gardens' beneficiary charities:

- ◆ Maggie's Cancer Caring Centres
- ◆ Queen's Nursing Institute Scotland
  - ◆ Gardens Fund of the NTS
  - ◆ Perennial

The remaining 40% will go to Trellis Scotland which supports 300 gardening projects to improve physical, emotional and social wellbeing.
